

USOE Fine Arts Rainbow Chart

Fifth - Page 1
Previously mastered grade level skills	Elements of Drama with definitions	Identify Experience	Explore Contextualize	Build Skills Practice	Analyze Integrate	Research Create	Refine Contribute
Mastered SCRIPT Skills: Characters, Setting, Events, 5 W's, Story Structure, Conflict, Overall Message, Dialogue, Plot Structure, Tension, Mood	Character Motivation-the underlying reasons why characters act the way they do  Objective- a character's goal or intention	Identify motives and objectives of characters in plays, films or stories.	Use role play and improvisations to explore character motivation.	Construct dramatizations that reveal how character motivations influence action and outcome.	Analyze motivations of characters in events from United States History.	Individually or through paired collaboration, create monologues, scenes, or plays which focus on strong character motivation.	Evaluate monologues, scenes and plays for effective development of character motivation.
Mastered ACTING Skills: Mental:  Listening Imagination Pretending Concentration Relaxation Transformation Observation Senses Sensory Recall Visualization Emotional Recall	Emotional Range-the ability of an actor to experience and portray depth of emotion in a character	Use theatre games, activities, or process drama techniques to experience and identify:  • Emotional Range	Explore how emotions affect the actions and relationships between characters  Use role play and improvised and improvisations to:  Explore how emotions affect the actions and relationships between characters	Use historical theatrical forms (i.e. flippies, living newspaper, radio drama, melodramas, musicals, shadow puppetry, etc.) to apply and practice:  • Emotional range	Use process drama techniques with grade level curriculum, current events, U.S. historical events, or literature to: 1. Deepen understanding 2. Analyze how emotions affect the actions and relationships of characters 3. Analyze how the use of character	Participate as a character in monologues, scenes, musicals, or plays that require emotional range, character voice/ movement and collaboration as a team.	Create scenes, plays or literature departures which address emotionally charged historical events and which require understanding of character motivation and collaboration as a team. Perform for another class. Evaluate to improve.
Voice:  Imitating voices Volume Diction Pitch, Tempo, Rhythm Expressive Voice	Voice Skills: Character Voice- using animated voice techniques to imitate or create the individual and distinctive traits of a character's voice	Character voice	Explore volume, pitch, tempo, pause, rhythm, placement, and accents in character voices	Character voice	voice creates distinct, vivid, memorable characters

Fifth - Page 2
Previously mastered grade level skills	Elements of Drama with definitions	Identify Experience	Explore Contextualize	Build Skills Practice	Analyze Integrate	Research Create	Refine Contribute
Imitating movements     Qualities of Movement     Purposeful Movement     Expressive Movement	Body Skills: Character Movement- using an actor's body to imitate or create the individual and distinctive traits of a character's physicality	Character movement	Explore use of body parts, shape, size, levels, qualities of movement, and pace in creating character physicality	Character movement.	<ul> <li>4. Analyze how the use of character movement creates distinct, vivid, memorable characters.</li> <li>5. Analyze how collaborating as a team</li> </ul>
<ul><li>Ensemble:</li><li>Cooperate</li><li>Communicate</li><li>Credit</li><li>Caretaking</li><li>Connect</li></ul>	Ensemble Skills: Collaboration: planning and playing dramatizations as a team or cast	Collaboration	<ul> <li>Explore         planning and         playing         dramatizations         as a team</li> </ul>	Collaboration	increases under-standing of character relationships.
Mastered DESIGN Skills:  Costumes Props Transformed Space Sound Effects Light and Color	DESIGN musical sound- melody or sound created by voice or musical instruments used to enhance dramatizations	Use theatre games, activities, or process drama techniques to experience and identify the use of musical sound in theater and film.	Explore the use of music in theater and film.	Add musical sounds to enrich the emotional content of your drama.	Use musical sound with mime to tell a story or event.	Add musical sound to enhance your monologue, scene, or play.	Evaluate your use of musical sound in your dramatization. Make adjustments as desired.
	AUDIENCE The act and behaviors of watching others or self in a live or recorded performance.	Identify the actor- audience relationship in live theater.	As an audience member, explore and question artistic choices to better understand character development in a play or film.	As an audience member discern how you might be personally affected by a message from theatre, film, or TV and then make choices concerning your viewing experiences.	As an audience member, analyze and communicate the emotions and thoughts evoked by "musical theater" performances (either recorded or live).	Research and compare the roles of theater and film to audience members throughout US History (Include musical theatre).	As an audience member assess your skills in critiquing self and others in a respectful and constructive manner.